

Rocks & Stocks

MES & CIM Toronto Branch Professional Development

THE FEASIBILITY STUDY RELEVANCE, VALUE, EXPECTATIONS

Thursday October 15, 2015, 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Bennett Jones LLP, Suite 3400 - 1 First Canadian Place, Toronto

The Study

Do You Actually Have A Feasibility Study?
Is Your Feasibility Study Feasible?
Why Do Good Feasibility Studies Become Bad Projects?

Chair: James Sproul

Kevin Tanas, RungePincockMinarco
Jeff Stufsky, KLR Group
Philip Morkel, Hydragas Energy

The Forgotten Components

Schedule Impacts: Construction, CSR, Environmental, Permitting
“We’ll Deal With It In The Next Phase”: Ramp-up & Sustaining Capital
What Else Could Possibly Go Wrong? Future Concerns

Chair: Simona Cara

David Brown, Golder Associates
Warren Flannery, CIBC
Lawrence Devon Smith

Luncheon Keynote: Augusto R. Patmore, KPMG Project Risk And The Role Of The Board

Risk

How Does The Study You Have Relate To Your True Risks & Costs?
Quantifying Country Risk For Your Project

Chair: Warren Flannery

Jason Mewis, ENGCOMP
Chris Jacobs, Micon

Competing Demands: How Will Others View Your Study?

A panel and audience discussion: What do owners, boards, bankers, private equity, sponsors look for in a Feasibility Study?

Chair: Jessie Liu-Ernsting

Moderator: Richard Ross

For more information and registration:

<http://bit.ly/2015RocksStocks>

$395 – Rocks & Stocks plus Grubstake Event

$355 – Rocks & Stocks

Students $50

Followed by CIM Toronto Branch’s “Grubstake Event”
4:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. at The National Club, 303 Bay St.

Professional Development Series

Management and Economics Society & CIM Toronto Branch

