International Mineral Asset Valuation Conference 2025

Navigating Mineral Asset Valuations in an Uncertain Future

1 October 2025 – Masterclass | 2-3 October 2025 – Conference

The Maslow Hotel, Sandton

BACKGROUND

The purpose of this Mineral Asset Valuation Conference is to bring together professionals from the international mining and finance sectors to discuss and debate mineral asset valuation methodologies and best practices in the context of an uncertain and rapidly changing landscape.

In a time of global transformation, the mineral resources sector faces unprecedented challenges and opportunities. From the increasing influence of Environmental and Social Governance (ESG) considerations to the shifting dynamics of the global economy and geopolitics, the valuation of mineral assets must adapt to navigate an uncertain future.

The International Mineral Asset Valuation Conference 2025 serves as a cornerstone for thought leadership, collaboration, and innovation in this evolving field globally. This event will bring together a diverse group of experts, practitioners, and decision-makers to explore solutions and strategies that ensure mineral asset valuations remain relevant, reliable, and responsive to the world's rapidly changing landscape.

The conference will delve into key aspects shaping the mineral valuation process, offering attendees valuable insights into how the industry continues to tackle current and emerging challenges.

Join us as we engage in meaningful dialogue, share innovative practices, and build a path toward a sustainable and resilient future for the mineral valuation profession.
